Nero di Gio Rosso d'Italia

www.cielo1908.com

VARIETALS	Blend of the most appreciated native grapes of Italy
VINTAGE	2020
REGION	Italy
TECHNICAL DATA	Alcohol 14.5%
APPEARANCE	It's called Black because its intense and impenetrable dark ruby colour.
NOSE	Notes of blackberries and prunes go well with the spicy and toasted sensations of liquorice and coffee.
PALATE	Each sip stands out for its immediate freshness, which recalls ripe fruit, followed by a spicy and tasty trail, with surprising balsamic and floral hints of myrtle, mint and violets. Well balanced between strength and pleasantness.
PAIRING	Thanks to its harmonic profile, it goes well with roasted white and red meats, grilled vegetables, rich lasagna, moussaka, chicken tikka masala, beef meatballs with tomato sauce or burgers with Cheddar and bacon.
