| TECHNICAL DATA | Alcohol 15%                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| APPEARANCE     | Deep garnet color, intense yet remarkably luminous.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| NOSE           | On the nose, a bouquet of extraordinary complexity: dried red fruits, violets and wild roses, followed by sweet spices, tobacco, chocolate and balsamic hints.                                                                                                                  |
| PALATE         | On the palate, it's powerful and captivating, the alcohol is perfectly balanced by vibrant freshness, while the tannins gently caress the palate. The finish is nothing short of endless.                                                                                       |
| AGEING         | Long aging in French and American oak barrels and then in bottle.                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
