Barambán Garnacha & Tempranillo

www.bodegasaltomoncayo.com

VARIETALS	50% Garnacha, 50% Tempranillo
VINTAGE	2022
REGION	Campo de Borja, Aragon, Spain
TECHNICAL DATA	Alcohol 15%
APPEARANCE NOSE PALATE	Deep-ruby color. The nose developes with aromas evoking nuances of violets, currant and blackberries. The attack is powerful and silky with a combination of blackberry, cherries and plums. Well-balanced fruit, floral and spice notes with hints of nuanced oak providing complexity to the nose and taste. It possess a long and pleasing persistent aftertaste finish with a great aging potential.
AGEING	The two varieties are elaborated separately in stainless-steel tanks. The Garnacha is then aged for 6 months in American oak while the Tempranillo for the same period in French oak.
PAIRING	Barambán is a bold wine that requires rich dishes to stand up to its profile: try it with grilled steaks or burgers with blue cheese.
